

Brief Items of Interest in City

Everything. Veihl-Crawford Hdw. Co.*
Drumm's for cut flowers We have three phones in our store. They are never all busy.

The Orpheum has the best pictures and the best music in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Culberson of 1232 Arizona avenue announce the marriage of their daughter, Stella to Mr Sam B. Alexander of Fort Worth, Saturday, Oct. 21, in the office of County Clerk Beavers by Justice of the Peace T. J. Maben. They will be at home at 1232 Arizona avenue.

Miss Kate Murphy of Marlin is the guest of her brother and sister, Mr.
and Mrs. L. A. Murphy of 121 West Leuda street.

Publication of the cotton region bulletin will be discontinued Tuesday by the local weather bureau. The bulletin is published every day except Sunday for six months during the cotton season. It carries all weather conditions in the cotton region.

"Use of Dynamite on the Farm" is described in detail in a booklet just issued by the Cotton Belt railway on "Greater Acreage and Greater Yields" The publication is one of the most complete handbooks on explosives ever issued for farm purposes. The subjects of the different stages are:
"Clearing the Land," "Getting the Farm in Shape," "Preparing the Land for Crops" and "Keeping Up the Farm." The books can be obtained at the city ticket office in the Fort Worth National Bank building.

The case of Mrs Lucy Matheson, charged with killing her husband in Abilene, Oct. 9, is set for the first day of Judge Buck's criminal term, Nov-13. The setting was made at the request of the defendant's attorneys, Judge S P. Hardwicke of Abilene and McLean, Scott & McLean of this city.
The cas was transferred to Fort Worth by the judge of the Taylor county district court.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Mothershead have returned to their home in San Benito after visiting at the home of B. F. Bouldin, 600 Luxton street.

J P Mansker of Ballinger is visiting his son, A. J. Mansker, 804 Porter street.

S Liberstein was convicted of selling bad grapes in Justice Peden's court Monday afternoon, and the jury fixed the penalty at a fine of $25 Dr. J. S.
Abbott, state pure food commissioner, testified that he bought grapes of Liberstein that were unfit for use and that Liberstein had them unprotected from the flies.