Miss Grace Sharp To Be Married to Francis M. Ansley

Miss Grace Marie Sharp and Francis Marion Ansley are to be married sometime the latter part of this month.

The engagement was announced yesterday by Miss Sharp's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Blake, of 2918 Terrace Park drive, Parkland estates. The date of the wedding has not been decided.

Miss Sharp is the daughter of T. P. Sharp, of Springfield, Mo., where she was born. She came to Tampa 12 years ago and has since made her home here with Mr. and Mrs. Blake. She was graduated from the Hillsborough high school and later attended the Peabody Institute of Music at Baltimore. She has been connected with the St. John's church for a number of years, as organist, and is a member of the Friday Morning Musicales and an officer in the Order of the Eastern Star.

Mr. Ansley is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Ansley, of 815 South Newport avenue. He is a native of Live Oak, but moved to Tampa with his family when a child. He was graduated from the Hillsborough high school and the Virginia Military Institute at Lexington, Va. For two years after his graduation he was connected with the Hillsborough Lumber and Supply company. Since then he has been with the Ansley Lumber company and for the last year has represented it in Porto Rico.

Parties are planned for Miss Sharp at her home on West Shore boulevard Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Others who are planning parties for her for which definite dates have not yet been set are Mrs. W. H. Hayes, Mrs. Oscar Snow, Jr., Mrs. T. J. Morris and Mrs. George Grissom, Mrs. L. Liebmann, Miss Frances Evans and Miss Myra Hooker Steele.

Children's Home Benefit Attracts Capacity Throng

A capacity crowd attended the charity ball last night in the Davis Islands coliseum for benefit of the Children's Home. Thousands of tickets were sold for the ball.

The ball was formally opened at 9 o'clock with a grand march led by Miss Lucile Trice and Gordon Gibbons, reigning queen and king of Ye Mystic Krewe of Gasparilla. Many elaborate and colorful gowns added interest to the function. Music for the dancing was provided by Manuel Sanchez and his orchestra.

Eddie Squires, radio announcer from station WFTS, was master of ceremonies and a program was presented for entertainment of the guests. George Perry Lord, concert baritone soloist, former member of Roxy's Gang, radio entertainers, sang a group of numbers. Mr. Squires entertained with selections he features over the radio station, including "I'm Painting the Clouds With Sunshine" and "Singing in the Rain." He also sang parodies on several song hits.

A number of entertainers from night clubs appeared on the program, and exhibition dances, including the black tango, the Argentine tango and the Apache dance were given in costume.

Directors of the home who sponsored the function were Mrs. Abe Maas, Mrs. H. C. Macfarlane, Mrs. W. G. Brorein, Mrs. C. B. Reynolds, Mrs. Jessie Masten, Mrs. Irene Dudley, Miss Caroline Harris, Mrs. E. S. Craft, Mrs. J. A. Wallis, Mrs. Sol Jacobs, Mrs. Charles Ball, Mrs. E. D. Lambright, Mrs. W. C. Miss Mary Archer And Ralph Swanson Are Married Here

Miss Mary Archer and Ralph Swanson were married yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in a ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Archer, 722 South Boulevard. The Rev. L. M. Broyles, pastor of the Hyde Park Methodist church, officiated.

The ceremony took place in the music room before an improvised altar which was banked with palms and fern. The chandelier was converted into a large white wedding bell, and the rest of the rooms were decorated with gladioli and roses. A chain made of white ribbon and fern separated the rooms.

The bride and bridegroom descended the stairs and entered the room together. The bride wore an Alice blue chiffon dress fashioned with a flare-skirt and a short jacket coat with flare sleeves. Her picture hat was of blonde horsehair braid trimmed in old home-made lace and velvet ribbon. Her other accessories were in a matching shade, and she carried an arm bouquet of butterfly roses and valley lilies.

Sister is Attendant
Her only attendant was her sister, Miss Allene Archer, who wore a frock of yellow-flowered chiffon, trimmed in lace, with matching accessories. She carried an arm bouquet of yellow snapdragons.

Mrs. Archer, mother of the bride, wore blue crepe and a shoulder corsage of pink roses.

Miss Ruth Milton, violinist, played "Venetian Love Song" and "Legend of Love." Miss Caroline Stanford sang "Until" and "Because." They were both accompanied by Miss Grace Sharp who also played the wedding march.

Mrs. Swanson was born in Richmond, Va., where she completed her high school education. She attended Wesleyan Conservatory of Music at Macon, Ga., and later received her diploma in piano from the Peabody conservatory at Baltimore. She came here two years ago to join her family who have made their home here for the last five years. She is a member of the Mu Phi Epsilon musical sorority.

Bridegroom of Maryland
Mr. Swanson is a son of Mrs. J. F. Swanson of Cumberland, Md. He was born in Arkansas and attended school at the University of Richmond. He is a member of the Phi Delta Omega fraternity and of Sigma Theta Phi, honorary business fraternity. He has been connected with the Western Electric company, of Baltimore, for the last year.

The couple left immediately after the ceremony for an extended trip by motor through the southern states. The bride's traveling costume was of navy blue pussywillow with an Eton jacket of Chartruse. She wore navy shoes and a navy bakou hat. Her other accessories matched the jacket. During the trip they will visit Miss Catherine Archer, sister of the bride, who is in Richmond, and Mrs. Swanson, mother of the bridegroom, in Cumberland. They will be at home after the first of July in Baltimore.
