G. W. Woods, of Chicago, is still a very sick man. We hope for the best.

Mr. C. Winston has removed from 5338 Bulware avenue to 711 Clarence avenue.

Mrs. Anna Williams, of 2832 Adams street, is up and out again after a few days' illness.

Prof. L. H. Patterson and family have moved from 4349 St. Ferdinand avenue to 4263 North Market street.

Miss Nellie Beard, of 4034 Evans avenue, is quite sick from her own imprudence. This will teach her a lesson.

Lyons' Cafe at 319 North Jefferson avenue is the place to get the inner-man recuperated. Stop and be convinced.

Mrs. Annie D. Hyatt, of 1421 Montrose avenue, is quite sick. She is Princess of Ebeba Temple No. 31 of the S. M. T.

Mr. Arthur Bolden left Tuesday the 25th for Canada for an indefinite length of time. His wife, Mrs. Era G. Bolden, will join him later on.

Mr. Wm. P. Dyer will leave to-night for West Baden, Ind., in search of health. When in St. Louis he resides at 2801 Manchester avenue; at least he does business there.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Bray, of 2921 Howard street, will move into their own home, at 2741 Semple avenue, about the 6th of May. This is a good example. Who will follow?

Mr. and Mrs. Levie Mansker, of 530 Garrison avenue, will soon remove to 2821 Adams street. Mrs. Mansker has been sick all winter. We hope she will now enjoy good health.

Mrs. Alice Jones, of 315 South Twenty-second street, is entertaining her friend, Miss Hattie Newell, of Greenville, Ill. Miss Newell is quite well known here and is always welcomingly received.

Mrs. James A. Bray, of 2921 Howard street, entertained at dinner last Sunday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Tillman, Mrs. M. A. Lawrence and Miss Ella Williams. A very pleasant afternoon was spent.

Mrs. Lizzie Locket, of 2307 Papin street, is a blushing widow, and while she is not in a hurry about being taken in, she wants to know the fellow. Of course, she is an up-to-date widow, and the man must be likewise, or there is no go.

The business meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary was held at the residence of Mrs. Jenne Harris, 2623 Papin street, at 2:30 o'clock, April 5. The ladies spent a very pleasant afternoon, and were very glad to have with them at their meeting the much-sought Mrs. M. Monroe and Mrs. M. E. Wallace.

Where are you going? That's where. To the grand parlor social given by Golden Gate Juvenile No. 7, Friday evening, May 5, 1905, 3522 Cozens avenue. Refreshments of the season will be served in abundance. Superior mother matron, Mrs. Hattie Williams; father guardians, Mr. Nathaniel Wilson, Mr. Pettigrew, Mr. Nelson Williams; mother matrons, Mrs. Octaves Mahoney, Mrs. Laura Hardy.
