Buffet Luncheon.

Mrs. C. C. Slaughter Jr. entertained for Miss Roberta Wright yesterday with a five-course buffet luncheon in the palm garden at the Adolphus. The room was made more effective by clusters of palms and bay trees arranged as a background. The hostess, wearing a gown of rose chiffon draped over white charmeuse, presented Miss Wright, who was gowned in a silver-embroidered robe and she carried American Beauty roses. Six tables, all different in floral designs, were arranged for the luncheon. The punch table was a bed of sweet peas and ferns. The second table, or bride's table, had as a centerpiece a white French basket of bride's roses. Mesdames R. S. Slaughter and Arnold Bally presided here. The third table was pretty with its basket of pink Irish roses and lace cover. The fourth was arranged with rich red Richmond roses in a red basket. The fifth table had a delicate pink basket filled with shell-colored carnations and the last table was decorated with red carnations, clustering in a red basket. The wedding party, consisting of the bride-to-be, bridesmaids, groom and the groom's friends, assisted the hostess through the afternoon in being hostesses and hosts to the 225 guests.

The Bon Homme Club.

The Bon Homme Club met Thursday night with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lee at their home, corner of Columbia and Collet avenues. The home was prettily arranged for the occasion with tall vases of American Beauty roses and ferns. During the games of five hundred the favor for the ladies' high score fell to Mrs. W. A. Oliver and the gentlemen's went to L. E. Alvis. The hostess served refreshments to the club, which will meet next week with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cressey. Among the club members are: Messrs. and Mesdames George Brooks, H. O. Powell, John E. Lee, Byron Graham, J. A. Cressey, W. A. Oliver, Major Roach, Walter Mason, E. C. Lamley, W. E. Mason, L. E. Alvis; Mesdames J. B. Winslett and R. R. Carlton, and Messrs. Ned Hendricks and James Lee.

Ephemere Club Meets.

The Ephemere Club met this week with Mrs. Jake Harrison on Reiger avenue. Low crystal bowls of pink and white carnations made the home attractive. During the games of bridge the favor for high score fell to Mrs. E. K. Klengle, the second favor to Mrs. Henry Smith and the guest prize went to Mrs. E. Veasey, while the consolation fell to Miss Viola Bohny. The hostess served refreshments of ices, carrying out the pink and white colors. Among the guests not club members were Mesdames De Witt McMurray, William Burton and E. Veasey.

Oak Lawn Bridge Club.

The Oak Lawn Bridge Club reorganized and met this week with Miss Gladys Williams. In the games the club favor was won by Miss Mary Worley and the guest favor went to Miss Marguerite Cooke. The hostess served refreshments to the club members and the following guests: Misses Lillian Smith of Gainesville, Will Nina Nunn of Landonia, Percy and Clara Moore of Marguerite and Hazel Cooke and Mrs. Mabel Kemp of St. Louis. The club will meet next week with Miss Mary Worley at her home on Rawlins street.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Pitcher, 2023 Garrett avenue, Miss Louella Pleasants was united in marriage to J. C. Boyce last evening, Rev. Francis Carrington officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Boyce left over the Frisco for their future home in Collinsville, Pa.
