

DALLAS SOCIETY NEWS.

La Fève Club entertained with a dance and german last evening at Phoenix Hall, which will be their last formal affair this season. The ballroom was trimmed with Easter lilies and smilax. Palms and vines formed an avenue through the halls and stairways.

The young people were chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Reardon, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Connor, Mr. and Mrs. Jules E. Schneider, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Waller, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Cage, J. T. Trezevant Mr and Mrs. John Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brandon, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Gabagan, Mr. and Mrs. Sam O. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Ed O. Tenison and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rogers.

The german was danced after 12 and led by Mr. Ed Staten with Miss Ruth Gibson and Mr. Rob Reardon, who favored Miss Georgia Schneider.

Miss Edith Starr entertained Thursday evening to meet Miss Eppstein of Denver, Colo. There were about fifty guests to enjoy the music, dancing and a proposing contest, for which prizes were offered. Mr. Rosenbaum and Miss Wohlstein were the winners, Mr. and Mrs. Dreyfus and Mr. Max Eppstein acting as judges. Pretty bisque souvenirs were distributed during the luncheon, which was served at 12 30.

The X Y Z and Odds Clubs gave a dance Thursday evening, complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Munger. They were entertained until 11 o'clock at the home of Miss Maggie Sterett, after which the clubs and thirty-five young lady guests were served with a nine-course supper.

Miss Daisy Hurst returned Friday from a two-months' stay in New Orleans and Baton Rouge, La.

Mrs. D. Zellner of Memphis, Tenn., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. A. Eldridge, at 115 St. Louis street.

Mr. E. M. Bacon Jr. and bride, formerly Miss Mansker of Ballinger, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. McCraw at 343 Routh street.
