

EX-OFFICERS OPEN DETECTIVE AGENCY

Ab Speight, Ladd and Kreyenbuhl Get
Commissions as Special Officers,
Others Granted.

Former Assistant Police Chief Ab Speight, former City Detective L. F. Ladd and former Warrant Officer George Kreyenbuhl opened a private detective agency in rooms 223-224 Western National Bank building, Tuesday, to be known as the Speight-Ladd Detective Agency. Speight is manager, Ladd, assistant manager, and Kreyenbuhl, secretary-treasurer.

The detectives were commissioned as special officers by the city commission Tuesday. Commissions also were granted to former City Detective R. R. Porter, now house detective for the Metropolitan hotel; County Probation Officer Harry Hamilton and S. D. Hartman and A. J. Mansker, W. C. Lucas and J. D. Lucas, special agents of the Texas & Pacific railway.