BOARDING.

A FEW Gentlemen can be accommodated with board by the widow Armstrong, living opposite the Court-House Raleigh, July 2d, 1817. 27-tf.

To the Public.

SUPPOSING that the horrid act which took place in Halifax County, North-Carolina, between Jesse Moore and Clement Read, and which finally terminated the existence of the said Read, unnecessarily called the passions and prejudices of the Public against said Moore.—We the undersigned neighbours and acquaintances of them both, have presumed to make a simple statement of the circumstances and facts which preceeded and as it were, gave rise to, or eventuated to that horrid catastrophe. About 3 or 4 years ago Jesse Moore was riding by said Read's house and saw a parcel of men playing cards; this was a little before Court, and the said Moore was one of the Grand Jury, and said Read was presented for keeping a disorderly house; and made oath that Moore was bearing vengeance, v. z. Moore and abusing him in every company where he met with him in the most aggravating language (of which he was very capable.) Thus he went on harrassing him till June 1815. James Judge the Constable informed the said Read that he had a writ for him, for those who were witnesses of their conduct, combined to ruin said Moore. They obtained a few judgments to the amount of 41 or 5 dollars, about 3 of which were for Read's benefit; said Constable left on Saturday night, and on Monday, week following, at one put up the advertisements and the other followed on, a few minutes after and pulled them down, so that the highest neighbours knew nothing of it: but happened on the day while he was selling said negro, said Moore's father rode up (having been at Court) and being told what was done, informed the Constable if he would wait until he could return home (about 2 miles) he should have his money, to which the Constable replied, Mr. Moore all I want is the money; Moore went off and in about 40 minutes came back with the money but as soon as Mr. Moore started after the money, said Read asked the Constable who is Mr. Moore, he is, God-Almighty that we should wait for him, at which the Constable said, he would sell, please or displease, and cried the negro off, which was bought by Read for 300 dollars very far from the place. Read was purchaser for forty dollars. Those who were present, who were only those who had accidentally come to the shop, & who were without money, observed, "Jesse very hard, to which the Constable replied, Read dont turn up to me, I am only selling to the highest bidder." Moore made him pay for keeping a disorderly house to which Read answered and said "twas 22 dollars if he would pay that twas all he wanted—it is believed said Jesse Moore knew nothing of the sale of his negro, as the Constable left the money at a discount, and went to town about 2 or 3 miles from the shop. In a short time after this, said Read and Constable were both tendered with the money agreeable to law; they both refused receiving it, every species of insult almost was continued till Sunday night 20th April 1816. When Read very laid the path of said negro and took and kept him till Tuesday 29th, at which time said negro made his escape—Immediately after this by the advice of counsel a notice was served on Read, demanding if he had any title to said negro to come out immediately &c. Which Read did not, but continued his insults by words and actions, getting Constables to serve sham warrants on him, and executions which they had v. z. Read, he would get in with them to Jesse Moore's house and levy on this negro as his property which was at one time fixed in October last. This negro he took and tied said negro and was about to carry him off, but was let loose as Jesse Moore threatened with his gun. He the said Read has way laid the plantation of Moore by day and by night, and has searched the negro houses in the neighbourhood, offering rewards to white and black if they would put the negro in his possession for the purpose of running him off—Negro speculators have escaped his importunities—The fact is he has tried every way but the honest one—harrassing the negro to buy property and threatening him for his shop & preventing him doing his customers work, and rousing a continued uproar in the neighborhood. And on the 28th April last said Jesse Moore told said Clement Read publickly, if he ever put his foot on his territory again he would kill him if he could get a chance to do it. And on Sunday the 4th July, said Read went to the house of said Moore in his absence, and much abuse his wife. He went from thence and made his boast that he had been to the house of said Moore, although Moore had threatened shooting him if he went there. This fellow setting out to have a view of the conduct of a man who has been all his life engaged in the study of ingenious shifts and crooks of the law; so much so as to acquire the appellation of pissy woolly lawyer, to the great annoyance, of the peace & happiness of the neighborhood, and to those but for the manner in which he made his exit no one laments.

Attention!

THE Subscriber having fixed his residence at a place known by the name of Pleasant Plains, in the late purchase from the Indians, 32 miles from Columbia in Tennessee, and 38 miles from the Muscle Shoals, on the main road leading to the Tennessee country, and to New-Orleans, respectfully offers his services to the acquaintances in Carolina, and to the public in general, as agent in the land business, either to locate warrants, or to ascertain old claims.

It is generally believed that the lands within the chartered limits of this State not yet appropriated, will be made subject to location and entry, and to sale, by the next session of Congress. And it is probable that at no very distant time, government will cause an office to be opened for the entry of claims—The subscriber living near the centre of the purchase, and having the himself acquainted with the different parts thereof, flatters himself, that he will be enabled to discharge the duties in the capacity above named, as well as any other person Warrants put into his hands he offers to lay on reasonable terms, on lands of the first or second quality, whenever an office shall be opened for that purpose, and attend to the completion of the title by grant—He has instruments of the best kind; and from his long experience in surveying Ropes to receive a share of public patronage.

RAN-AWAY from the subscriber, near Sneedsborough, N. (Anson county,) a yellow man slave, by the name of LARRY, about 25 years old, 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, straight and slender built, has a small scar on the inside of his ears, and on one of his legs is a large scar—I purchased said negro from General Gabriel Holmes, of Sampson county, North-Carolina.

LARRY is a sensible polite fellow, and I think it probable that he has procured a pass, by which he will attempt to pass for a free man; and most likely will aim for Wilmington in this state, or Norfolk, Virginia, and take shipping: I am informed that he is acquainted at both those places.

I forewarn all masters and owners of vessels, from employing or taking him on board, &c.

I will pay the above reward to any person who will secure him in any jail, so that I get him, or deliver him to me and all reasonable expences paid.

THE Subscriber offers for sale the following valuable real estate, viz.

Fifteen acres of land bounded on its east side by the town. There are a spring on this land and a stream of water running through it.

One hundred and fifty two acres of land on the Stage Road 8 miles north of Raleigh, mostly under cultivation. It has on it a pple and peach orchard, a small frame house of two rooms on a floor, and a never failing spring convenient thereto. This would be a desirable situation for a tradesman from the low country.

Four or five town lots in Smithfield and several tracts of unimproved land in Johnston. One of which 375 acres lies near Neuse River and convenient to Smithfield and is well timbered with pine.

Any and all the above property will be sold on accommodating terms if the payments are secured. North-Carolina Bible Society.

NOTWITHSTANDING the recent institution of several Bible Societies within the bounds of the State, the necessary and increasing demand for the Sacred Volume during the present Year for Bibles, call for additional funds to promote extensively the great object of its formation. Anxiously on these pleasing demands greater than the stock on hand; and the Managers of Divine Truth, willing to increase, the funds will be found quite inadequate to the wants of the poor and destitute among us. Impressed with the importance of this subject and the responsibility which rests upon them, the Managers of this Society feel it their duty to devise some measures for the relief of their Trust. They have therefore resolved to solicit the aid of those whose office and whose delight it is to proclaim and to distribute the glad tidings of peace and salvation—and they do hereby earnestly solicit all the Members of the Gospel, of every denomination in the State on some day in the month of December next, after such notice and explanation as they may think proper to give, to make collections from their several Congregations for the benefit of this institution.

The sum thus collected, may be transmitted to Benj. S. King, Esq. Cashier of the Bank, in Raleigh, and will be thankfully acknowledged.

 The Editors of all the papers in this State, it is hoped will give this notice two or three insertions, without charge.

North-Carolina Bible Society.

AT the last annual meeting of this Society a Committee was appointed to draw up and publish a report of the proceedings of the Society, embracing a view of the progress of this Institution had already made in the good work of Bible Society and of its prospect for further and more enlarged usefulness—But the Members of this committee being at a considerable distance from this place and from each other, and being much engaged in their professional pursuits, the report has been necessarily deferred until the present moment. It is now expecting that the year has run more than half its round since the last annual meeting of the Society, the Board of Managers think it to be past the time to distribute to the Committee and to suspend the present report until the next annual meeting, when it is hoped and believed, the just expectations of the public on this interesting subject will be gratified.

To this apology the Managers will merely subjoin a statement of the funds available by the present Treasurer's last report, and of the receipt and distribution of Bibles and Testaments during the past year.

On the 7th Dece mber 1815, the balance in the hands of the Treasurer was $283 11-4—And these was then due, for money lent out by the Board, the sum of $289 45.

This society owned two the Shares of stock in the Bank of Newbern: for this, however, two instalments, amounting to $360 exclusive of interest, remained to be paid.

Wool Carding Machine.

THE subscribers take this method of informing their friends and the public generally that they are on eting a Machine to manufacture the finest quality (or the purposes of Carding wool into rolls for spinning on Nathaniel Rowlin's road near Woody's ferry. The above Machine will be in operation about the 15th of the present month. All wool brought to the Machine must be washed clean, all hard substances be on out and well picked. The subscribers will charge per hundred of one pound of clean soft grease, to every nine or ten pounds of wool, and a sheet or cloth sent to pack the rolls in, (a common sheet will contain from 20 to 25 pounds rolls) they then be carried any distance without injuring them. We deem it unnecessary to say more as to the wool in bringing it good order to the Machine it will be carded superior to hand carding, as a much larger quantity can be spun with the same ease and it makes much nicer and better cloth; in proof of this if any person wishes to put in their wool in place where the Machine are in use the hand cards are at their service. Those who have Merino wool to card are requested to observe the following method in cleaning it, take an equal quantity of water and rain or other soft water, mix them together, make it hot, and put in it a small piece of soft soap, and let it remain on a slight fire until the grease is started from the wool, then put it in an open bottomed basket and set it in running water or pour water out it until it is clean; then let it drain and dry, and it may be prepared for carding.

Those who bring wool to card are particularly requested to observe the above mode with their Merino wool, and then prepare it for carding by the directions before given, as no wool can be received to card but such as is brought in good order and prepared in the manner above mentioned. Punctuality will be strictly observed and justice cannot be done it in carding.

The price of carding wool into rolls will be 10 cents each per pound, different colours nicely mixed at the same price, and hatters wool broke at 6 cents per pound.
