

Charles B. Isbell

Hillside Elects Charles Isbell

Charles B. Isbell has been elevated from executive vice president and cashier to president of Hillside National Bank of Dallas. He succeeds Louis A. Watson who will remain as chairman.

Isbell, who joined Hillside in September 1968, had been an officer in several suburban banks.

William J. Miller was promoted from assistant vice-president to cashier. Gene Mansker, formerly president of Cattlemen's Investment Corp. of Sulphur Springs, joined the bank as as-