

SOCIETY-CLUBS..

NEWS ABOUT WOMEN

SPEAKERS: Miss Idalice Squire, left, director of the Children's Creative Art Center, showed some of her pupils' work to Mrs. John O. Phillips, Jr., center, interior decorator and writer, and Mrs. W. Forrest Goodfellow, Seattle Public Library Board member and civic worker. The women will discuss activities of their respective fields at the annual banquet of the Mortar Board alumnae Thursday evening in University Congregational Church. Also on the program will be Miss Kathryn Dwyer, department-store advertising director,

Four scholarships will be awarded to University of Washington women students at the 47th annual banquet of Mortar Board alumnae Thursday in the University Congregational Church.

The alumnae will present the Ruth A. Densmore Grant to a senior and the Mary Lou Clough Award to a foreign student. The university's active chapter will award two tuition scholarships.

A panel discussion will be presented by alumnae: Miss Kathryn Dwyer, advertising director of a department store; Mrs. John O. Phillips, Jr., interior decorator and writer; Miss Idalice Squire, executive director of the Children's Creative Arts Center, and Mrs. W. Forrest Goodfellow, Seattle Public Library board member and civic worker.

Mrs. Harold A. Newsom will moderate the panel, entitled "Confidentially Speaking," in which the women will tell side-lights of their fields.

Mrs. Charles M. Henderson will be the toastmistress.

Mrs. Ralph W. Johnson, is the banquet chairman. Assistants are the Mesdames Betty Dimmit, Curtis H. Wienker, Clyde Robinson, Donald Olson, Robert Milloy, James Gast, Paul Schuler, James S. Eastman, Warren Spickard and Keith Tucker and Miss Gloria Bratvold. Mrs. Bruce Busch is planning decorations. Hostesses at the social hour

Mr. and Mrs. H. Richard Bussey announce the engagement of their daughter, Cheryl Eileen, to Mr. John A. Macdonald, son of Mrs. Clyde D. Douglass of the Philippines and Mr. Norman Macdonald of Toronto. Both attend the University of Washington. She is a member of Sigma Kappa. He will be graduated in June.—Kennell-Elis.

Mildred Alice Seasword, Donald D. Wright Married

Miss Mildred Alice Seasword became the bride of Mr. Donald Delano Wright Saturday afternoon at a double-ring ceremony in St. James' Cathedral. The reception was in the Hotel Edmond Meany.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Clara Seasword of Chicago, who came here for the wedding, was given in marriage by her cousin, Mr. Martin O. Nelson. She wore ivory satin and lace.

The maid of honor, Miss Ann Teresa O'Donnell, was in ivory lace over turquoise-blue taffeta. Mr. Albert V. Krebs was best man and ushers were the Messrs. James A. Murphy and Arthur E. Holt.

The bride is a graduate of Rosary College in River Forest, Ill., and St. Louis University, Mr. Wright, son of Mr. Carroll E. Wright and the late Mrs. Leo Davis, will be graduated next month from Seattle University.

The couple will make their home at 915 Cherry St. In double-ring ceremony MRS. DONALD DELANO WRIGHT

—Harold Smith, Times staff. MRS. DONALD DELANO WRIGHT

Child-Care Group to Hold Heirloom Tea

Friends of Youth, Inc., will hold an Heirloom Silver Tea tomorrow in the Wedgwood Presbyterian Church. Hours will be from 2 to 5 and 7 to 9 o'clock.

Exhibits will include a world-wide collection of art objects, silver, china, stamps, paintings, glassware and buttons. Among the exhibitors will be Mr. R. H. Ryder-Smith, Lieut. Col. G. W. Sperry, Mr. Luther L. Hawthorne, Miss Lulu Fairbanks and the Mesdames Clare Moffitt, Laurin Lamb, Mary Downing, Earl Gebhardt, Donald Forsyth, George Karras, R. R. Montell, Roy Steiner, Chester Second and A. O. Mansker.

Mrs. Lamb is chairman of the affair, assisted by Mrs. Karras, Mrs. Moffitt and Mrs. Ira Cotton. Hosts and hostesses will be Police Capt. Florence Ross, president of Friends of Youth; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Starkweather and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon G. Grant.

In charge of the tea will be Mrs. V. V. Alexandroff and Mrs. Max Hipkoe. The hostesses will wear early-day costumes.

The pre-convention meeting of the board of managers for the Washington Congress of Parents and Teachers will be held May 6 in The Olympic, preceding the general three-day convention which will open May 7. This year's convention theme is "The Family and the Community: The P.-T. A. Serves Both."

call el. 1371
ARCTIC FUR CO. STORAGE
1900 third at Stewart

Varied Program Prepared For Euthenics Club

A varied program is planned for the Euthenics Club's meeting at 10 o'clock tomorrow in the University of Washington Student Union Building.

At the morning session, Mrs. E. G. Waterhouse will conduct a plant sale to benefit the group's scholarship fund, and Mr. Jack Jones, interior decorator, will give a talk, "Recent Changes in Interior Design."

After luncheon, there will be a hair-styling demonstration. Board members will be elected.

Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Stamps have returned from three weeks in Los Angeles. They visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Borgatta, and met their newest grandchild, Linda Christine, born March 27. The Borgattas have another child, Mark Steven. Mrs. Marie Compo of Santa Barbara is the other grandmother.

The Seattle Times 11
Monday, April 29, 1957

Pictures of the Month
Pictures of the month chosen by the Seattle Co-Op are "The Amethyst Vase," an oil by Mrs. Lester L. Farmer, and "Rangers of the Forest," a water color by Mrs. William A. Segur. The pictures will be displayed in Klopfenstein's in the University District until May 21.

MEN'S and LADIES' ROBES and HOUSECOATS

DRY CLEANING NOW 20% OFF PANTORIUM

Launderers & Cleaners
40 Routes—8 Locations
MA. 0050

Orthopedic Junior Group Planning Dance Friday

The annual spring dance of the Junior Association of the Children's Orthopedic Hospital will be held Friday in Parker's Pavilion.

The patrons include the Messrs. and Mesdames A. William Douglass, Morton Schwabacher, R. J. Hillman, Henry Holert, Melville Monheimer, Robert Dodge, Philip Bronson and John O. Phillips; Drs. and Mesdames George Tooley and Robert, L. King and Mrs. J. Richard Lane.

The co-chairmen are Mrs. Bronson and Mrs. King. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Bronson, Gibson 7224, or Mrs. King, Gibson 1989.

Something to Wear:

The Parkwood Orthopedic Guild and Amare Junior Orthopedic Guild will present Fashion Fantasies at 7:45 o'clock tomorrow evening in the Butler Junior High School auditorium.

Modeling will be the Mesdames W. W. Bruce, Orrin Shearer, E. H. Gruger, Jr., Robert Howlett and Ralph Worden and the Misses Jean Sloper and Janice Barth. Children of guild members who will model are Susan and No-reen Smith, Mary McGlothlin, Craig Loucks and Geoffrey Alm.

Fashions will be from North-gate shops. Mrs. Joseph Rasnack, Jr., is the chairman, assisted by the Mesdames Worden, O. D. Daniel, S. R. Gilbertson, Leroy H. Jahnke, Royal Smith and F. E. McGlothlin and Miss Ann Alexander.

More Fashions:

The Jeanette W. Skinner Orthopedic Guild will present its annual luncheon and fashion show tomorrow in the Fort Lawton Officers' Club.

Mrs. William Workman is the chairman, assisted by the Mesdames William Butler, Mayer Baron, A. G. Daubert and Howard Roraback.

Mrs. Jack Dowling is guild president.

Festival Time:

Spring flowers, music and decorations will set the stage for the first annual Spring Festival presented by the Lake Washington Orthopedic Guild Saturday evening in the Empire Community Club.

Mrs. James W. Washburn is the dance chairman. Mrs. G. W. Vander Sanden is president of the guild. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Washburn, Rainier 9024.

Light Fantastic:

Pink Parasol is the theme of the annual Minnie Fortson Kirk Orthopedic Guild spring dance Saturday in the Olympic Bowl. Decorations will follow an Oriental theme, using lanterns, umbrellas and miniature rickshaws.

Mrs. William Helsell is the chairman, assisted by the Mesdames Coburn Crosby, George Kennaugh, Robert Baugh, Frank Black, William Wolfe, Gordon Villevik, Carl Irwin, James Mercer, James Slayden and William Christoffersen. Mrs. Frederick Hopkins is president of the guild.

BRIDE: Miss Betty McAllister and Mr. Allen D. Thurman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Thurman, were married April 20 in the home of her father, Mr. Parker McAllister, and Mrs. McAllister. The bride is a senior at the University of Washington School of Nursing.—K. E. Blair photo.

Red Cross Motor Service To Be Honored

The 40th anniversary of the founding of the American Red Cross Motor Service will be celebrated at a luncheon, attended by present and past members tomorrow in Ivar's Fifth Avenue. Mrs. Ralph W. Savory is motor-service chairman for the Seattle-King County Chapter, American Red Cross.

Members of the chapter's first volunteer-driver group, who organized November 11, 1917, have been asked to attend.

LINDENBERGER-CAMPF

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvan Campf of Portland, Ore., announce the engagement of their daughter, Leah, to Mr. Richard Lindenberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lindenberg. The bride-elect attended the University of Washington. He is a university graduate and a member of Zeta Beta Tau Fraternity. They will be married early in June in Portland.

Mothers' Clubs At U. of W. List Events

University of Washington fraternity mothers' clubs have scheduled the following events this week:

Tomorrow—Alpha Delta Phi, annual guest-day dessert party at 1 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Payne Karr, who will be assisted by Mrs. M. F. Braden. Mr. Julius Mattson, an Alpha Delta Phi alumnus now with the Federal Bureau of Investigation, will speak. Chairman of the affair is Mrs. D. A. McCaughey. Pouring will be the Mesdames A. W. Akers, J. T. Carroll, Mike Hansler, Robert Landwehr, S. L. McNamee and A. M. Ulbricksen.

Wednesday—Delta Tau Delta, meeting at 2 o'clock in the chapter house. There will be a demonstration of hair styles and officers will be elected. Kappa Sigma, luncheon at 12:30 in the home of Mrs. John H. Gaffney in Bellevue.

Thursday—Theta Delta Chi, luncheon at 1 o'clock in the chapter house, with bridge and canasta afterward. Proceeds will benefit the scholarship fund.

Members of Ravenna Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will make their annual visitation to the Masonic Home in Zenith Sunday. A potluck picnic is planned for 1:30 o'clock.

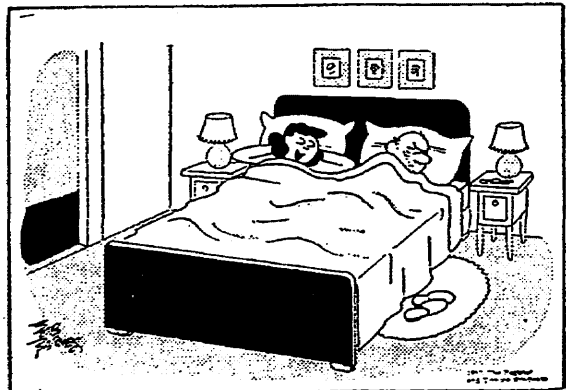

Clifford & Clark

7 to 12 MONTHLY EXCEPT SUNDAY

THE Olympic MARINE ROOM

The Better Half

By Barnes

"Guess whose turn it is to get up and shave and get the other one some coffee!"

Dr. and Mrs. Alexander P. Greer are the parents of their first child, Timothy Perot, born April 16. Grandparents are Mrs. John P. Bracken and Mr. and Mrs. Rolson L. Greer, all of Philadelphia. Mrs. Bracken is here for a visit with the Greers in their Mercer Island home, and to meet her new grandson.

Finest Quality Seafoods
All ways...

Royal Red BRAND

CLAMS-SALMON-CRAB

WIVES

Is your Husband a Mechanical Engineer or Designer? Or a Technical Writer?

Would you like to live in San Jose, California? (near San Francisco)

See our Ad in Classified.

Food Machinery and Chemical Corporation

His Eyes Need Measuring, Too!

While preparing your child for school days ahead, don't forget to measure his Ability to See. Since approximately 85% of all knowledge is acquired through the eyes, he'll do his best with relaxed Good Vision. He'll get better grades, have more self-confidence, make friends easier if he isn't handicapped with faulty eyesight.

A thorough examination by your skilled Binyon Optometrist will accurately measure his visual efficiency for classroom work and play alike.

COMPLETE PERSONALIZED OPTICAL SERVICE
SCIENTIFIC EYE EXAMINATIONS
PRECISION GROUND LENSES
SMART, DURABLE FRAMES
CONTACT LENSES

BINYON Optometrists

Seattle Offices
1905 4th Avenue Phone: MAIN 4828
814 1st Avenue Phone: MAIn 1550
404 Pike Street Phone: SEneca 7524
Everett: 2713 Colby Avenue, Phone: BAyview 1231

SEATTLE • TACOMA • SPOKANE • YAKIMA • BEL LINGHAM • EVERETT • BREMER TON • RICHLAND