Chicago Cubs Crush Brooklyn Threat in 1st of Series

National League Leaders Open up in Mid-Game, Coming from Behind to Win 7-4, Boosting Their Lead

Chicago, Aug. 24 (AP)—The Cubs arose in their might as league leaders today and turned back the first bid of the upstart Brooklyn Dodgers, 7 to 4, as the "crucial series" between the National league's leading pennant contenders opened.

It was more than a mere victory for the Cubs although it went into the records only as a triumph that increased their lead over Brooklyn to 4½ games. It was a dignified assertion of their right to lead.

Brooklyn took an early lead, scoringtwice off Charley Root in the first inning, but the Cubs opened up in the fourth and put over four runs to take the lead.

Root pitched steadily from the first inning to the seventh, when he hit a streak of wildness. Then Bob Smith took over the job and finished it expertly.

Chicago's hitting featured two-base hits. In the big fourth they clouted three doubles and two singles for their runs.

Herman's double an wt efindilo dH erman's double and two infield outs added another run in the fifth. After Fay Thomas replaced Van Mungo in the seventh, the Cubs scored their other two runs. Smith hit a two-bagger and Herman tripled and came home when Glenn Wright dropped the relay from the outfield.

Two doubles combined with a walk and a hit batsman, scored the Dodgers' first-inning runs. Root's wildness gave them another in the seventh when he walked two men after Stripp and O'Doul had singled and Smith allowed one in the eighth on singles by Lopez, Taylor and Stripp.

Cincinnati, Aug. 24 (AP)—Boston swamped the Cincinnati Reds with a four run rally in the fifth inning of a first contest today to win 5 to 2 but then lost its punch and dropped the second game, 3 to 1.

Benton virtually won his own game in the second affray, his double after Durocher's single putting the Reds ahead. Berger's homer was the invaders only run.

French Doubles Pair Eliminate Bell and Mangin

Henri Cochet and Young Mate Reach Semi-Finals in U.S. Doubles; Meet Vines, Gledhill.

(By Bill King, Associated Press Sports Writer.)

Brookline, Mass., Aug. 24 (AP).—Overcoming the widest sort of lead, Henry Cochet, France's premier tennis player, and his 18-year-old countryman, Marcel Bernard, today fought Berkeley Bell and Gregory Mangin, fourth-seeded American team, off their feet to gain a semi-final berth in the 51st national doubles championship.

The Frenchmen were two sets down and trailing two games to love in the third when they cracked their American foes wide open and swept on to a 1-6, 4-6, 6-4, 6-4, 6-1 victory.

Bell and Mangin were red hot as they built up their early lead.

When the Frenchmen gained the third set and forced the match into overtime, the Americans agreed to continue without the usual rest. They over-estimated their stamina, for during the last two sets they were played out and Cochet and Bernard appeared as fresh as ever.

Ellsworth Vines and Keith Gledhill gained the other upper semi-final place by trouncing Tidball and Elbert Lewis, 6-4, 6-4, 63, in an all-California tussle.

Tomorrow's semifinal will bring the defending champions, Wilmer Allison and Johnny Van Ryn, against GeGorge Lott and Frank X. Shields. The 1931 winners, Allison and Van Ryn, who also hold the Davis cup titles, swamped Sidney Wood, New York, and Lester Stoeffen, Los Angeles, for the second time in a week in four sets, 2-6, 7-5, 6-3, 6-4.

Another bit of recent history has repeated when Lott and Shields passed into the second-last bracket by eliminating Henry W. "Bunny" Austin and Frederick J. Perry of England, and top-seeded foreign team, 6-3, 6-2, 6-4. These teams met in the third round at Newport last week and the Americans won in four sets.

Baltimore Meets Springfield for Eastern Jr. Title

Winner of Game in North Carolina Will Meet Victor of Orleans-Los Angeles Tilt.

Gastonia, N. C., Aug. 24 (AP).—Springfield, Mass., and Baltimore, Md., won their semi-final games today in the American Legion's eastern junior baseball tournament and tomorrow will meet here for the title and the right to represent the east in the "Little World series" with the winner of the western tournament.

The Baltimore team, winner of the national title two years ago, hammered out an easy 6-to-0 victory over the entry from Detroit, Mich., but Springfield was hard put to win a 1-to-0 decision from Alexandria, Va.

The "Little World series" will begin at Manchester, N. H., August 30.

Post Mortems in Sports

Cubs Look Like "the Goods."

After being dazed by a late season managerial change, charges, counter-charges and official investigation of excessive race horse betting, loss of their star shortstop, Bill Jurges, for a time from the "unrequited love" shooting by Violet Popovich Valli, and the loss of their league lead, the Chicago Cubs have pulled themselves together under Charley Grimm and by yesterday's victory over the challenging Brooklyn Dodgers, seem to have the stuff champions are made of.

This morning the Cubs are four and a half games on top in the National league race. The season drive for the championship in the older major league has been the most sensational in history. Thus far every club in the league has made a spurt towards the top, and though New York and St. Louis never got there, they still aren't too far back to be positively counted out.

The Boson Braves, Cincinnati, Chicago, and Pittsburgh all had their turn topping the league. Philadelphia just recently burned out a great drive toward the top, but like the Braves, Bucs, and Cards, are still on the danger line, and can get back to the top (with breaks and more breaks).

To us, it looks like Chicago in the National, and any co-ed can tell you the New York Yankees are cinches for the Amerrag.

The Cubs' ability to live through the rows and ruckus they have been involved in this summer, and then look like champions against the current threat, the second place Brooklyn Dodgers, stamps them as good enough to go through to the world series, behind their margin gained by whipping the Flatbush boys yesterday.

None of the other clubs have the balance of the Cubs. The present World champions, the Redbirds of St. Louis, sacrificed some seasoned stars and then had the misfortune of having at one time almost a dozen of their best players handicapped by bruises, lame arms, broken bones, and other disabilities. The Cards will be up there in 1933, but can hardly assemble their forces for a successful first place drive this year. Young stars are filling in well with tried performers at Chicago, and the pitchers are getting right.

Pittsburgh and Boston have shown remarkably well, almost upsetting the dope bucket. Cincinnati had its fling, and with a bit more building, the Phillies are liable to turn their powerhouse attack into something more than a fence wrecker, "next year."

And what about the World series? Another story there. The Yankees seem to have what it takes, great pitching, greater hitting, fine defense, and smart stuff, taught by a mighty good manager in Joe McCarthy.

Contrary to the information carried in the afternoon contemporary's spicy section, "The Grab Bag," the sentiment of the Morning Advocate "night side" boys is not, "Lord, You Made the Nights Too Long." Quite opposite, "Lord, You Didn't Make the Nights Long Enough."

Papooses Play Splendid Game to Defeat Seattle's Club in Junior Legion Series; Play Los Angeles

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 24.—The classy little team of Papooses from New Orleans gave a grand exhibition of baseball here this afternoon in beating the crack outfit from way up at Seattle, Wash., 3 to 1, and thereby reached the final round of the Western United States American Legion junior baseball championships.

The Papooses will face the junior club from Los Angeles, Cal., in the final round Thursday afternoon. The boys from movie land swamped the Colorado entry from Boulder in the first game of this afternoon's doubleheader by a count of 21 to 6.

Bill Schonacher pitched a fine game for the Orleanians and he was backed up by brilliant support. The Papooses pulled off four double plays, winding up the battle with one Orleanians Score First.

The Orleanians put across their first run in the first inning. Mounes grounded out, third to first to start it. Then Diaz hit a hot grounder at the third-baseman for a single. Constancy grounded out, third to first, and Diaz took second. Diaz stole third and scored on Captain Jimmy Frache's timely single to left. Graffagnini filed out to deep center to end the round.

Second Score Comes in 7th.

Though the Papooses put men on bases in every inning they couldn't furnish the hits to score again until the seventh when three hits were bunched to bring across a run. In te eighth one scratch hit and an error accounted for a tally.

The Seattle team tied it up in the fifth. Constable walked and Gregory popped to Constancy at third. Then Ragan, the pitcher, connected for a single to right field, putting Constable on third. Then Milroy blasted a single to center to score Constable. Two pop-ups to the infield retired the side.

Constancy led off in the seventh by lining one through second base. Fraiche laid down a nice sacrifice bunt and Constancy advanced to second. The catcher threw Fraiche out at first. Then Graffagnini popped a high one that hovered over the spot between the box and second. The whole Seattle infield charged in for it but then they all stopped and the ball fell between them, Graffagnini going safe. Manglapane popped up to third and then Craven stepped on the hero pedestal by smacking out a single to right field to score Constancy, Guillot grounded out, third to first, of the last out.

Score on Double Steal.

That run put the Papooses in the lead to stay but they added another in the eighth for good measure. Schonacher flied out to center to start it. Mounes waited the pitcher out and got a walk. Diaz socked a hot one at the pitcher and he deflected it away from the second baseman, Diaz going safe on the hit. When the pitcher was working on Constancy Diaz let out for second. The second baseman came in to take the throw but the throw was had and the ball rolled off towards first. Mounes, in the meantime, dashed for home for the third run of the game. Constancy struck out and Fraiche flied to left for the last two outs of the round.

Smart baseball squelched a Seattle rally in the second inning. Duff singled to start the round and stole second. Wise popped up to short and Constable got a hit through third, putting Duff on third. When Schonacher was pitching to Gregory, Constable went down to second and Guillot heaved it toward the bag. But Mounes came in behind the pitcher and took the throw. Just as it was intended, Duff tried to score, and was caught easily. Constable tried to take third but Guillot was too wide awake for that and threw him out to complete the double play.

Double Play Stops Rally.

Schonacher pulled out of a nasty hole in the third, with the aid of brilliant fielding by his teammates. He walked Gregory, the first man up, and Ragan went safe when Craven pulled his foot off the base while taking the throw from Fraiche on Ragan's grounder. Then Milroy hit a nasty grounder at Constancy and all hands were safe with a man on every base and none out. It really looked bad, but the Papooses showed what good ball players they are when Holcomb hit a grounder at Schonacher and Schonacher forced Gregory at home and Guillot winged a bullet like throw to first to get Holcomb, Craven took in a hot liner for the htird out.

Bobby Manglapane came running in at full speed on a liner to left in the sixth and took it in for the third out. Wise was on first having reached there on a single. The ball was labelled base hit and it took a brilliant catch by Bobby to save the day.

Joe Graffagnini will oppose the California team Thursday. Either Sheehan or Barry will play right field.

Charley Ruffing Breezes to Score His 15th Win, Beating Tribe 9-3; Levey's Homer Beats Macks in 11th

New York, Aug. 24 (AP)—Charley Ruffing had little trouble scoring his fifteenth victory of the season today as the Yankees pounded out a 9 to 3 victory over the Cleveland Indians.

In the third the McCarthymen cut loose with four hits, topped off by Tony Lazzeri's homer, and took the lead.

The game looked tight for just two innings with Cleveland holding a 1-0 lead as the result of Bruce Connatser's single and two Yank errors in the first. But in the third the McCarthymen cut loose with four hits, topped off by Tony Lazzeri's homer, and took the lead, never to lose it.

The Yanks made their lead 4-1 in the fourth on Ruffing's first double and a fly, following a single by Chapman, and put the game away in the sixth and seventh innings when they got five runs out of eight hits. Base hits by Lary, Ruffing and Combs and Joe Sewell's double brought a pair in the sixth and another four-hit burst, topped off by Ruffing's second double, which drove in two tallies, brought three more in the seventh.
