

Jeryl Eads And Bride Take Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Jeryl Kay Eads are on a wedding trip to Colorado Springs, Colo., following their marriage Saturday at the Skillman Avenue Church of Christ. They will live at 1625 Sutter.

The bride is the former Miss Constance Anne Wattner, daughter of Mrs. Oscar A. Wattner, 6414 Llano, and the late Mr. Wattner. She attended Abilene Christian College.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfonso Eads, 2515 Costa Mesa, are parents of the bridegroom, who attended Arlington State College.

John H. Banister officiated at the ceremony. Miss Deanna Bryan, Waco, and the church quartet provided music.

Kenneth W. Wattner gave his sister in marriage. She wore a dress of white parchment satin, designed with an Empire bodice of Alencon lace which also formed a panel in the chapel-length train. A pearlized coronet held her scalloped veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis and fleur d'amour centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Joe Grubbs, Lubbock, was matron of honor; Mrs. Allen Isbell, Abilene, Misses Kaye Mansker, Midland, and Miss Camille Pratt were bridesmaids.

Alfonso Eads was best man for his son, John Gary Eads, brother of the bridegroom, and Jimmy Basham lighted the candles. Keith Taylor was ring-bearer. Other attendants were Travis Harkness, Mike Maddox, Richard Madden, Jimmy Green and Kenneth Lancaster.

A reception was held in the east wing of the church.

MRS. EADS