MEMBERS OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS... The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for publication of all news...

Principle and Principal

The Countess Cathcart episode has shown us again the application of a truth so old and so obvious that we are likely to overlook it...

The Spectator's Plight

One great difference between weekly publications in the United States and England is that the latter usually carry advertisements on the front cover...

More on the White Elephant

The New York Sun takes obvious and justifiable pleasure in reminding its readers that twenty-four years ago it pointed out the folly of the large canal project...

Doings at Cambridge

The indications are that the sun may set in crimson, as, according to a Harvard song having to do with the college ensign, a loyal spirit and the inevitable days of yore, the sun has set before...

Mussolini and Mafia

Some of the Italian dictator's sternest critics are saying, Well done, Mussolini. They cannot but join in the chorus of approval which greets him as the savior of Sicily from the terror of the Mafia...

DAILY LESSONS IN ENGLISH

WORDS OFTEN MISUSED... "Who is the letter for?" Say "For whom is the letter?"

As the World Wags

By PHILIP HALE

The sale of the Murat homestead in Florida recalls the fact that Charles Louis Napoleon Achille, son of the dashing and ornamental marshal of Napoleon the Great...

The Moral of It

After you have read the summary from the New York Sun of barge canal experience, we would invite your attention to the strange readiness of the American people to bite the same bait over and over again...

Equality of the sexes is coming too fast in the straphanger class.

Boston Teachers Are Right

The Boston Elementary Teachers' Club, with a membership of 1790, manifest the traditional spunk and independence of judgment of this community when they go on record "overwhelmingly" against the Curtis-Reed bill...

John F. on New England

Ex-Mayor Fitzgerald was about eleven-twelfths correct in his Florida speech day before yesterday, when he said that New England is the ideal section every month of the year...

GRIME'S REAL CAUSE

To the Editor of The Herald: It is curious how skillfully the chief cause of crime has been evaded by all the recent speakers and writers on the subject...

OMAR IN BOSTON

A kitchenette, an in-a-dor, and thou! Beside me eating onions on rye bread. Oh, that were paradise no how. I.

"BOB" OR "A WAVE"?

Mrs. William Heitkemper underwent a tonsorial operation at the Park Falls Hospital last Wednesday.

APPOLOGIES TO TENNYSON

As the World Wags: Of course I am aware that verse is the most unpoetical literary composition, and that parody is the lowest form of verse—still, I think I can hardly be blamed too severely...

WORDS OFTEN MISUSED

"Who is the letter for?" Say "For whom is the letter?" "OFTEN MISPRONOUNCED—Soot. The oo may be pronounced as in 'hook' or 'soon' the former is preferred."

SELECTIONS FROM OUR MAIL BAG

"O. K." To the Editor of The Herald: Since, so far as he is aware, the present writer is the only person who has investigated the history of these now famous initials...

John George, William As the World Wags: A few days ago you told us of the indignation of William, the car-porter at being called George...

JUST INDIGNATION As the World Wags: With righteous indignation have I read the continued jests aimed at the "O. K." in the Herald...

HARASSED Wherever I go Death surely comes behind me. Pressed as I am by the cross The passionate goal, forbidding that I pause...
