

Local Laconics.

Miss Scwenck is again quite ill and confined to her home in East Jonesboro.

W. O. Finley of the Keller Chapel neighborhood returned this morning from Fayetteville, where he has been attending the University of Arkansas the past session.

Rex Wheeler, an old Jonesboro boy, arrived in the city this morning from Port Huron, Mich. He tells us that his father and mother will return to Jonesboro in a week or two and again make this their home.

There was one case of drunkenness in police court this morning and the usual $5 fine was assessed.

Rev. J. W. Hargatt, of Bono, was a visitor to the city today.

Road Commissioner J. B. Walker of Lake City, was a visitor to the city yesterday and today.

Joe Little and wife arrived in the city this morning and are visiting the home of Mrs. Joe tells us that he will buy him a house here and become again a citizen of Jonesboro. We welcome him back.

Mrs. E. T. Miller and family have left Jonesboro and gone to Washington, La., to reside. They were well liked in Jonesboro and their many friends regret to see them leave.

M. Schall of Lake City, was in Jonesboro yesterday afternoon and a welcome caller at our office.

Miss Agnes Mason is quite sick at her home on South Main street.

R. W. Cogsdill and wife and Mrs. P. A. Derks of Truman, spent yesterday and today in Jonesboro. Mr. Cogsdill came up to attend the meeting of the Elks Lodge last night.

Lee Driffoos, a well known citizen of Dryden spent yesterday in Jonesboro.

Doswell Brown has returned from Nashville, Tenn., where he went to accompany his wife. Mrs. Brown will visit at that place for some time.

Ross Whitlock a good citizen of Harrisburg, was in Jonesboro yesterday.

W. A. Mallory a well known traveling man out of Memphis, was in the city today a guest of the Warner House.

R. F. Ray of Monette, was a business visitor to Jonesboro yesterday.

W. B. Saffley and L. F. Lunsford, two prominent citizens of Monette, are in the city today on business.

W. B. Astor, of Memphis, is registered at the Commercial today.

T. J. Cowall, a good citizen of Manila spent yesterday in Jonesboro.

B. Robinson, a good citizen of Leechville, spent today in Jonesboro on business.

Dr. J. C. Hafford, a prominent physician of Black Oak was a professional visitor to the city today.

S. M. Cuns, of Pine Bluff is a guest at the Commercial today.

J. T. Robertson, a well known citizen of Lake City spent today in Jonesboro.

C. E. Keaney, a prominent citizen of Little Rock was in the city yesterday and registered at the American.

M. W. Gnat, of Black Oak was in the city today.

Mrs. Walter Potter and children returned home last night after a visit to relatives in Jonesboro.—Soliphone.

Mrs. Gen. Gouff, of Bonnerville arrived in the city today for a visit to the family of Rev. Taylor, of North Jonesboro.

Jack Bryant, the man who was broken out with smallpox yesterday has been placed in a tent just north of town and a trained nurse is with him. He is doing nicely today and the physicians think there is no danger of the disease spreading.

R. L. Wilson has made extensive improvements in his place of business. The front room has been enlarged to double its former size and will be repapered and painted at once. He has arranged a nice lunch counter and when finished will be a first-class restaurant.

Mrs. M. A. Stuck is able to be out after a severe illness.

On Wednesday afternoon at the home the bride Mr. John McCaskell was married to Mrs. Ella Thomas. Both are of this city and well known and liked.

The officers visited the building formerly occupied by Murphy & Baker as a saloon this morning and unearthed one bottle of whiskey.

P. Hughes, of Bay was in the city today.

Ollie Warren returned this morning from Newport where he went on a business trip for Klapp's Pharmacy.

Tot Tatam will leave in the morning for Corning where he goes to assist Rev. Halloway in a revival meeting just started at that place.

W. B. Cone returned yesterday from Black Rock, where he has been hunting for pearls the past week. He says that he found one nice pearl.

The large brick building being erected on the corner of Johnson and Bridge streets, North Jonesboro, by A. C. Gambill, to be used as a general merchandise store, is about completed. This is the first brick business house for the north side and shows that that part of the city is progressing rapidly.

Get Neopolitan Brick Cream at Chase's Sunday. 2t.

J. D. Lessenger, a good citizen of Bonnerville was a business visitor to Jonesboro today.

Thos. Butler, a prominent citizen of Lake City, was a business visitor to the city yesterday.

J. F. Satherthwaite, came over today from Lake City.

K. W. Mansker was here today from Bono.

The Musical Coterie held a called business meeting at the residence of Mrs. Hardy Little on Jeffersn street yesterday afternoon and elected delegates to attend the state meeting that takes place at Eureka Springs on the 16-18 of April. Mrs. Virgil C. Pettie was the chosen delegate with Mrs. W. W. Cate as alternate.