St. Patrick's Party
A Delightful Affair

Entertaining a large number of his little friends, Wallace High, Jr., handsome young son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. High, celebrated his ninth birthday yesterday afternoon at a delightful St. Patrick's party at his home, No. 802 South Newport avenue. The entire lower floor of the home was festively decorated with green and white streamers and garlands, and the tables were covered with white cloths and decorated with green and white flowers. The party was given by Mrs. High, assisted by Mrs. J. B. Jeffcoat and the prize among the visitors was Mrs. Horton of Ohio, and was an attractive picture of Florida scenery.

Mrs. Elliot was assisted in entertaining and serving the dainty refreshments by Mrs. G. M. Merzick, and the occasion was one of exceptional enjoyment for all present.

MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENT

Miss Suga Umazaki, Japanese singer and entertainer who is a graduate of the University of Florida, gave a musical and vocal program at the home of Mrs. J. B. Jeffcoat, who is touring the country giving concerts to complete her education before returning to Japan.

BENEFIT CARD PARTY

A benefit card party will be given Monday evening at the home of Mrs. J. A. McKay, at the Tampa Yacht and Country Club. The proceeds to be used for the benefit of Americanization work being done by the State Federation of Music Clubs.

ST. PATRICK'S DINNER
DANCE AT COUNTRY CLUB

In keeping with the usual enjoyment which characterizes the social functions given at the Tampa Yacht and Country Club, the delightful St. Patrick's dinner dance given there last evening.

The spacious ball room was artistically ornamented with handsome palms and other greenery, and the music appropriate of the day was used effectively. Distributed among the guests were all kinds of novel St. Patrick's favors, such as paper caps, pipes, bombs, shamrock pins, etc., which added greatly to the festivity.

FOR MISS MARION POTTER

Miss Marion Potter of Johnstown, N. Y., the lovely young house-guest of Miss Freda Salomonson, at her home on Bay street, who has been the recipient of many charming social courtesies, was again complimented Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. James C. Anderson entertained four tables at the Tampa Yacht and Country Club.

Black straw baskets of pretty spring flowers decorated the attractive lounge, and St. Patrick's score cards made the places of the guests, who included: Misses Marion Potter, Freda Salomonson, Helen Hill, Marjorie and Lulu Tibbitts, Gladys Hawkins of Montgomery, Ala., Mesdames Bowman Barnes of Savannah, W. L. Vandylke, Roscoe Nettles, W. C. Johnson, J. R. Leon, E. C. Tibbitts, J. H. Mason, Russell Bowyer, W. L. Harwell.

ST. PATRICK'S BIRTHDAY PARTY

A very enjoyable birthday dinner was given last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph N. Titus, No. 606 Madison street, in honor of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Titus.

Among their guests were included Mr. and Mrs. John B. Shields of Linton, Ind., who have been spending a few weeks in Tampa. The evening was one of much pleasure for all.

SHAMROCK DINNER
SPLENDID SUCCESS

At the Catholic Social Center a unique "Shamrock Dinner" was served last evening. The scene was one of beauty and splendor.

White and green flowers were used in decorating, and beautiful hanging baskets of asparagus fern were suspended here and there. The tables were decorated with pretty flowers and in the center of each table were placed with candles, and the soft light from green tapers in cut glass candlesticks, greatly enhanced the beauty of the scene. The place cards were miniature scenes of the Emerald Isle.

PRETTY BRIDGE PARTY FOR VISITOR

Quantities of bright spring flowers were given to Mrs. J. A. McKay, wife of the home of Mrs. Roscoe Nettles, Bayshore Boulevard, on the occasion of yesterday afternoon, when she entertained a number of friends at a bridge party. The party was given in the drawing room at the home of Mrs. McKay, and the occasion was one of exceptional enjoyment for all present.

CHARMING LUNCHEON

Mrs. H. T. Lykes was the cordial hostess yesterday at a charming luncheon given in honor of Mrs. F. A. Sieberling, president of the National Federation of Music Clubs.

The luncheon was given in the dining room at the home of Mrs. Lykes, and the central adornment was a silver basket of ornate roses, and the table was set with a beautiful arrangement of candy flowers and ferns, to which were attached the place cards, and a delicious five-course luncheon was served.

SUNSET CLUB

Members and friends of the Sunset Club will be entertained Saturday afternoon with a finely selected program of vocal solos, duets, readings, instrumental music and stories by accomplished entertainers. The club address will be delivered by Rev. N. P. Havelly of Wesleyan church. The public is being cordially invited and tourists who have missed previous meetings of the Sunset Club will find the meeting will open promptly at 2:30 o'clock in the First Christian church.
