Popular Concert To Be Given by Musicale Tonight

A popular concert will be given by the Friday Morning Musicale this evening at 8:15 o'clock in the musicale and federated clubs building, featuring the musicale orchestra, directed by Miss Hulda Kreher, with Mrs. Ernest Kreher and Miss Ruth Carrell as pianists and Miss Merle Holloway and Mrs. Esther Dunham, soloists.

The program depicts a wide variety of carnival scenes. The opening number "A Picnic," is a symphony by Spindler, and following it will be presented "Zigeunermusik," by Mohr. The third number, Saint-Saens' "Carnival of the Animals," is in 14 parts, representing through musical movements the inhabitants of barnyard and forest. This brings into play the full strength of the orchestra.

The fourth number, "Capriccio Brilliant," by Mendelssohn, will be presented by Miss Holloway with orchestra accompaniment and Mrs. Dunham, accompanied by Miss Christine McCrary will give as the fifth number a group of songs, (a) "The Robin Song," by White; (b) "The Cuckoo," by Liza Lehmann and (c) "The Wren," by Benedict.

Admittance is free but a small charge will be made for the refreshments served during the intermission, by Mrs. Russell Tarr and her committee, assisted by the ushers, Miss Christine McCrary, Miss Dorothy Leach, Miss Barbara Alexander, Miss Mary Elizabeth White and Mrs. J. E. Lyles. The ushers will wear foreign costumes and will serve a light supper at tables placed in the auditorium and foyer. Floral decorations in red and white, the club colors, will be in charge of Mrs. S. L. Walker.
