

NEW DEPUTY SHERIFF.

Deputy Mansker Explains Tardiness to Court by Announcing Son's Birth.

A. J. Mansker, deputy sheriff to the county court, was late in arriving in the court room Wednesday morning, but before Judge Terrell could reprimand him asked for a week's vacation.

When Mr. Mansker explained his reasons for being late, which were the same as formed the basis for his request for a vacation, Judge Terrell excused him for his tardiness and granted the vacation. Deputy Mansker has a new boy at his home.
