WATCH FACTORY NOTES.

The Rockford shops shuts down from July 3 until August 3.

The Waltham factory will close today for the annual summer vacation.

George Kinehan is putting up a nice new residence on North Third street.

Mr. Will Evans and Mr. Stoner were out at the factory yesterday afternoon.

George Dowdall of finishing "A" will make a short visit to Chicago, leaving last night.

The Aurora shop does not anticipate more than one day's lay off, over the Fourth of July.

At Waltham last week the thermometer registered at 98 degrees. We could go them one better here yesterday.

The friends of Will Hibbs in the train room sent a handsome sickle of flowers in memory of his sister, Mrs. Van Deventer.

The members of the First Baptist church of Jacksonville Sunday celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of its organization.

Mr. B. F. Sweet, father of Ben Sweet of the forge department, left yesterday for Redding, Shasta County, California, for an extended visit.

Among the excursionists to Havana from the factory were Fred Getty, Will Blodgett, Bert Rea, John Watkins, Eugene Kearns, Miss Maggie Larkin, Anna Bauman and Jennie Skinstine.

Elgin News: Jesse Townsend recently caught a plike weighing over four and one-half pounds.—The collet job has been added to A. L. Torrey's job in the escape department.—James Kneebone of the Rockford factory began work in the motion room here this morning.—The jewelry department has organized a company of Horribles, consisting of a band and several side-line attractions. It is hoped the other rooms will follow their lead.

Patience has certainly ceased to be a virtue in connection with the Ninth street car line. Yesterday the car was late fifteen minutes and everyone was late getting back at 1 o'clock. If this only happened occasionally the patrons would not complain, but it is of almost daily occurrence and a decided nuisance. Some of the boys are negotiating with some one of the livermen and will try to have a bus run back and forth at noon. If enough names can be obtained to make it pay, no doubt an arrangement can be effected and the employees of the factory will not have to be "docked" quite so frequently. Something must be done.

Elgin Courier: Eighty members of the Illinois Cycling Club started for Elgin from Chicago. Not all persevered, but a large number did. They were met at Aurora Sunday morning by an escort from the club here, and sometime after dinner started to wheel back. Another party of five from Chicago struck five miles of newly graded road and had to foot it. The party returned by train.—Harry Sylvester, the missing Waltham factory man, has been discovered in Barnum's circus band.—Miss Alice Grant of the train room has returned after a six weeks' illness.—Tom and John Hurlbly drove to Aurora yesterday.—Doc Beach has returned from Springfield.—Foreman Young will spend a month at Boston.

The entire plant of the Pennington airship enterprise is to be removed from Mount Carmel to Burlington, Ia.

Augusta Ludensack, a 15-year-old school girl, was married at Engleman Monday to Fred Kold, Jr., aged 27 years.

Fred Fink and Jacob Fluri were struck by lightning Sunday at Leuzburg. Fink was killed instantly and his companion dangerously injured.

Mrs. Elizabeth Phillips, a highly respected lady residing near Green Valley, died early Monday morning, having been taken with paralysis the first of last week.

The harvest of a great wheat crop commenced in earnest Monday in Southern Illinois. The crop now being harvested is the best that has been raised in that section for the last ten years.

The stockholders of the Aurora Cotton Company at a meeting Monday voted to increase the capital stock from $300,000 to $500,000 and to build a new mill, doubling the present capacity.

Noah Mansker, a "trusty" doing two years for burglary, took French leave from the Chester prison Monday. He was plowing on the farm. At 10 o'clock he tied his mule to the fence and departed.

At Carpentersville Monday lightning struck a barn in the door of which stood two workmen employed by the Illinois Condensing Company. One, Theodore Schultz, was instantly killed; the other, John Bartels, will die.

Sunday at Joliet the Richard street Methodist congregation dedicated its new $50,000 building, which is the finest in the city. It is built of Joliet stone and has a seating capacity of 1,500 in the main auditorium.

During the afternoon performance of Terrill Brothers' circus at Bushnell, a black bear broke loose from its cage in the menagerie and ran into the circus tent. It seized a little child of George Fry's and hugged and bit it so badly that it will probably die. The brute was chased into the country and captured.

A hard rain storm swept over Tazewell County Saturday afternoon. The water fell in torrents for two hours and the town of Hilton was nearly washed away. Cellars, wells and cisterns were flooded and in some instances houses were swept from their foundations. Farm Creek, a little stream, was suddenly converted into a torrent of destruction and five bridges were washed away.

The Odd Fellows have decided to erect a great temple of their order in Chicago. It will be located at the northeast corner of Van Buren street and Fifth avenue. The building will cost $1,000,000, and it will be sixteen stories in height. It will have a frontage of 100 feet on Fifth avenue and 125 feet on Van Buren street. Work will commence as soon as plans are finished. The grounds for the site will cost between $150,000 and $200,000.

A week ago the 7-year-old son of a family named Phillips at Peoria died of malignant diphtheria. Sunday night a son 5 years old died of the same disease and the next morning a 3-year-old son died. The father and mother are both at death's door with the same disease.

Well Merited Praise.

In almost every neighborhood there is some one or more persons whose lives have been saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, or who have been cured of chronic diarrhoea by it. Such persons take special pleasure in recommending the remedy to others. The praise that follows the introduction and use makes it very popular. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by druggists.

SUMMER SHIRTS come in, several new fabrics selected for their light weight. The most popular shirts have frilled bosoms made of lightest lawn either white or dotted with some small fancy pattern. Zephyrs and Oxfords are taking the place of the flannel shirts of last year. Roberts has all the best things and can please you.
