

North Ft. Worth News

The revival services that have been in progress at the North Fort Worth Christian church for several weeks will continue over Sunday and perhaps longer. The attendance is large at all meetings and many accessions to the church have been made. Evangelist Ward Russell, who is preaching a series of sermons on "The Ladder of Faith," is winning many to the church. There will be the regular Sunday services, Junior Endeavor at 9:30 o'clock, Bible school at 10, preaching at 11 and services at 8 o'clock in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Mays entertained the Baptist Young People's Union Tuesday evening. An entertaining social program was rendered and refreshments were served. Among those present were R. L. Smyth, F. L. Burroughs, A. T. Massey, Sutton Cabness, E. Haywood and O. Nation, and Misses Robertsin, Lowe, Stogner, Burk, Christian, Megular, Nation, Haywood, Hornsby, Potter and Stringer.

Mrs. L. J. Powers entertained the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church at her home on Denver and Central avenues Thursday evening.

C. F. Davis of Bowie was in North Fort Worth Thursday afternoon with a wagon load of apples, which he gathered from his own orchard. They were of the Arkansas Black, and Ben Davis varieties, and readily sold for $1.50 per bushel.

Rev. A. P. Lowrey is conducting a revival meeting at the Rosen Heights Methodist church, which is proving very successful. There have been many conversions.

An enjoyable entertainment was given Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Puckett, at 1411 Denver avenue, in honor of Miss Carrie Strain of Quinlin. Fortunes and games were the features of entertainment, following which refreshments were served. Those present were: Misses Floy Patton, Josie Hill, Malleff Nation, Alice Jeffers, Ina Magular and Carrie Stringer, and Messrs. Ragsdale, Howell, Heck, Horn and Sutton.
