

TERRITORY NEWS.

FEDERAL COURT CONVICTS.

The Names of Men Sentenced by Judge Clayton at Poteau.

SPECIAL TO THE NEWS.

South McAlester, I. T., March 15—Judge Clayton today at Poteau sentenced the following convicts to the Atlanta, Ga., penitentiary: Sam Hanson, robbing postoffice, two years; Hazen Williams, larceny, five years; J. F. Reisinger, robbery, three years; David Black, robbery, four years; John Walls, disposing of whisky, two years; James Franks, assault, to kill, two years; G. W. Burtle, adultery, two and one-half years; Andrew Mansker, eighteen months; John Neal, disposing of whisky, eighteen months; W. H. Duncan, disposing of whisky, one year; James Haley, disposing of whisky, one year; D. Bruce, introducing whisky, fifteen months; Dr. Kerns, disposing of whisky, eighteen months; Thomas Jones, introducing whisky, eighteen months; James Burns, larceny, five years; James Samples, introducing whisky, two years in reform school at Washington, D. C.