

The Supreme Court issued a writ of prohibition returnable September 2, against Judge Lieb to prevent him taking further action in the case of Sheriff Robert T. Mansker of Union county whom the court recently suspended pending a jury trial. At the time of the return the judge is required to show why the writ should not be made permanent.