Nazi Plant Has New Role BERLIN, Jan. 30.—(AP)—The great Leuna synthetic-oil plant at Halle, once one of the chief cogs in the Nazi war industry, is now producing baking powder. Soviet authorities disclosed yesterday.

House Group Hires Ex-Solon as Prober WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—(AP)—The House naval committee yesterday hired a former member as its special investigator, then set out to determine the full cost of the atomic-bomb tests at sea. The new agent is Melvin J. Maas of St. Paul, veteran of nine terms in Congress and one-time ranking Republican on the committee. More recently Maas has been a marine colonel. Chairman Vinson, Democrat, said Maas will play an active role in investigations the committee is planning. The committee summoned Vice Adm. W. H. P. Blandy for a report on the atomic tests he will supervise in May, with particular emphasis, Vinson said, on the cost angle.
