KEY WEST, Sept. 7.—British Vice-Consul W. J. H. Taylor, accompanied by his wife, returned to the city recently from Tampa, where they had been spending a while with their daughter, Mrs. E. O. Mansker, who is now making her home in that city.

Mrs. Taylor, who had recently been in one of the hospitals at St. Augustine, had been in Tampa recuperating for several weeks, and her numerous friends will be glad to learn that she is much improved.
