

Xmas Party Is Held By Club In Rio Hondo

(Special to The Herald)

RIO HONDO, Dec. 14.—The annual Christmas party of the Browne Tract Home Demonstration club was held here Wednesday at the home of Mrs. W. Reed Lang. It was an all-day affair with delicious covered dish luncheon served.

Annual installation of officers also took place at this time with the following taking office: Mrs. Hugo Grube, president; retiring president, Mrs. Knox Smith; vice president, Mrs. W. Reed Lang; retiring officer, Mrs. J. W. Lloyd; secretary, Mrs. H. Grube; retiring secretary, Mrs. McMurtry; parliamentarian, Mrs. K. B. Williams; retiring, Mrs. W. P. Mansker.

The regular business session of the club was held later in the afternoon. Each member answered roll call giving a short recitation, song, or stunt. Santa Claus appeared in person with a grab bag which contained gifts for each person and stockings filled with goodies for the children.

Plans were made for a New Year's party for the members and their families.

Twenty-four members were present for the party with the following guest: Miss Alice Wilcox, Mrs. Bert Houghtelling, Miss Violet Heck of Iowa and Mrs. Harry Mellus of Milwaukee, Wis.
